

BOOK READING & SIGNING

BARBED VOICES

*Oral History, Resistance, and the World War II
Japanese American
Social Disaster*

By Arthur A. Hansen
Foreword by Lane Ryo Hirabayashi

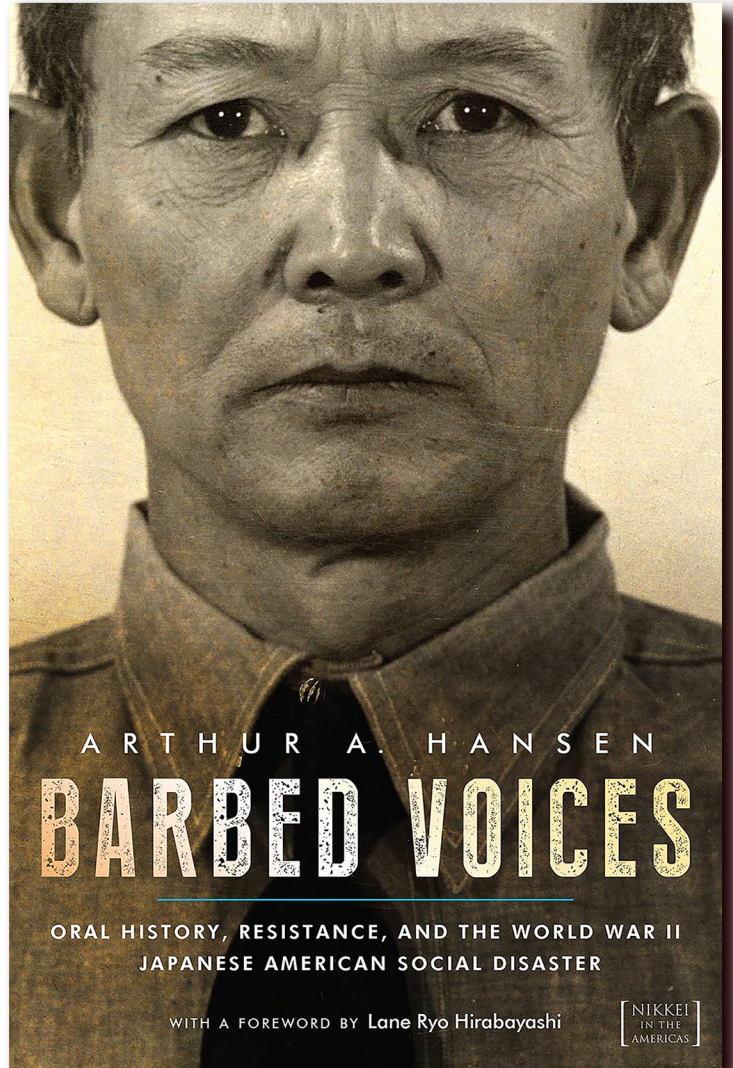

Sunday, January 6, 2019
1 - 3 pm

Gardena Valley Japanese
Cultural Institute
1964 W 162nd Street
Gardena, CA 90247

~Reception to follow~

Arthur A. Hansen is emeritus professor of history, founding director of the Japanese American Project of the Oral History Program and the Center for Oral and Public History, and founding faculty member of the Asian American Studies Program at California State University, Fullerton. He was Senior Historian at the Japanese American National Museum and received the Distinguished Lifetime Achievement Award from the Association for Asian American Studies in 2007 and the Sue Kunitomi Embrey Legacy Award from the Manzanar Committee in 2014.

“A unique compilation of original scholarship.... Hansen offers a wealth of observations and issues he encountered and met through his decades of interviewing.” -Tetsuden Kashima, author of Judgment Without Trial: Japanese American Imprisonment during WWII

“This is a compelling and timely volume, making [Hansen’s]work easily available to a new generation of scholars, students, and community members.” ~Cherstin M. Lyon, author of Prisons and Patriots: Japanese American Wartime Citizenship, Civil Disobedience and Historical Memory

Sponsored by: The Manzanar Committee, The Gardena Valley Japanese Cultural Institute (GVJCI), Nikkei for Civil Rights and Redress (NCR), Tuna Canyon Detention Station Coalition, Dr. Don Hata, Dr. Valerie Matsumoto, UCLA Aratani Endowed Chair,*

*For identification purposes only

For more information, call (323) 662-5102